Call for Papers

Due 1 September 2014

The Australian Centre on China in the World, ANU, invites submissions for an international conference on all aspects of the study of Taiwan to take place in its award-winning new building. The conference aims to bring together scholars from Taiwan and around the world to discuss research on Taiwan, pre-historically, historically and in the contemporary world, as well as from all disciplinary backgrounds.

A screening of Tsai Ming-liang's 蔡明亮 2013 prize-winning film Stray Dogs 郊遊 will take place on the evening of January 7, preceded by a discussion with the director. Two of Tsai's recent short films will also be shown during the conference.

An exhibition of the photography of Long Chin-san 郎靜山 at the Australian Centre on China in the World gallery, generously lent by the National Museum of History, Taipei, will be opened during the conference.
